THE ACKLIN SCANDAL.

We published last week the then current version of the conduct of J. H. Acklin, Democratic member of Congress from Louisiana. In justice to that gentlemen we now give below Mr. Acklin's card which denies in toto scandalous reports against him:

To whom it may Concern:

The infamous attack upon my character lately, published in several papers, I denounce as an unmitgated and willful lie—a fabrication from beginning to end—having not one scintilla of truth from its foundation. It has now been publicly denied by all who could have had any knowledge of it—by Gen. Rosser, who, in St. Paul, distinctly stated that he had "made no mention of the affair" to any one, and to me by telegraph from Minneapolis, in answer to my telegram stating, "when you know that no such incident ever transpired," says, "that he had made no such statements," and referring to the article in the National Republican, says: "Am not responsible for what it has published," and that the slanders referred to therein "must surely be false." After such denials I cannot further look to Gen. Rosser as the author of the vile attack. Further denials have been made by the lady through her brother and friends in published statements, and by employes of the restaurant in their sworn affidavits to which attention is called. I knew nothing of this slander until I reached Louisiana, but on seeing it, returned at once to Washington, and though as yet unable to trace its sorce, I have proved and shown it to be a vile calumny, without any foundation in fact.

J. H. ACKLIN.

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION.—MORE WILD SWEARING.—ANOTHER EXHIBITION OF DEMOCRATIC CHECK BY THE POTTER COMMITTEE.—LOST THE JENKS.—SOME FACTS ABOUT SPEAKER RANDALL AND THE POTTER INVESTIGATION.—WIDE SPREAD INTEREST IN THE COMING ELECTION.—CONGRESSMAN FOSTER SHOWS UP THE DEMOCRATIC RETRENCHMENT SHAM.—GLOVER ONCE MORE.

[Special Correspondent to the POST.]

WASHINGTON, July 4th, 1878.

The only topic of even languid interest is the Potter investigation. The first poin that may be mentioned is that the Minister to France, Mr. Noyes, is most completely exonerated from any knowledge of the Florida frauds whatever. The Florida case may be considered settled, no new point having been made, that state being now out the question, and Gen. B. F. Butler having been given complete control of the management of the Louisiana case, such attention as any one now gives the subject is centered there. The first move under the new programme was to refuse to call any witnesses for the Republicans who would show Democratic frauds and terrorism in that state. The next one was to bring on to the stand E. L. Weber, of East Feliciana Parish, a brother of the Don A. Weber who was assassinated by the Democrats early in 1877. Weber's testimony was read from a manuscript which seemed to have been carefully prepared before hand. His evidence, which has added nothing new to the case of the Democrats, is noticeable as being the latest development of the astounding capacity of Louisiana politicians of all grades, no matter whether northern or southern born, to box the compass of the witnesses box, in giving testimony. Weber, in his evidence swore to the exact contrary of all of his former uniform evidence and published statements for the last two years. When asked why he swore one way then, and another way now, he calmly said that what he had heretofore sworn to and written was not correct. In his testimony he gave a clue to the real meaning of his change of front. It was that Republicans could not find witnesses because they knew they would not be protected. His who'e course on the witness stand will add greatly to the growing disgust with which this entire business is viewed by sensible people. Neither party is sure of a witness, especially if he or she hails from Louisiana.

The Jenks have gone home. The Democratic organ here, disgusted with their testimony, from which so much was fondly hoped by the Democrats, gives them this characteristic farewell: "The Jenks turn out to be a worse fraud than Hayes." It is hard on the Jenks.

It now appears that for a long time Speaker Randall refused to rule that the resolution calling for the Potter investigation was a question of privilege. It was only when the managers added the names of Secretary Sherman and minister Noyes that and made specific charges, that he ruled so that the resolution came before the House. The Democrats now acknowledge the blunder made in making these charges as they have completely failed in sustaining them. Another point of interest is the fact that while the Democrats will not allow the Republicans to show Democratic frauds and bull-dozing in Louisiana, the sub committee now there has been engaged in taking testimony showing that these charges of fraud are not true. Nothing could more clearly show up in its true light Democratic honesty and love of fair play. Love of fair play considered as a Democratic attribute, is just about the present size of civil service reform. The one hurts the administration just about as much as the other does the Democratic party, no one can now recollect when that party ever suffered much because of it.

All the indications at the head-quarters of the Republican Congressional Committee show that there is already a wide spread and growing interest in the coming elections. There is a great inquiring for information, especially for facts relating to the sham economy of the Democrats, and their attitudes towards the south'n war claims and the army bills.

A large number of clerks from the treasury and war departments have been discharged for want of funds. Their services were needed but the Democrats refused to appropriate the money to pay them.

Capt. Phillips of the U. S. Engineer corps has been assigned to the station at Norfolk, Va. He will take charge of the improvements of the Neuse river, Currituck sound. North river bar, Scuppernong river, and Edenton harbor; and also survey the water line from Norfolk harbor to the Atlantic coast south of Hatteras. He has the reputation of being an officer of skill and experience, and a thorough gentleman in his intercourse with every one.

Congressman Foster, of Ohio, has been puncturing the Democratic fraud of retrenchment. He shows that the appropriation's made by this Congress are $12,000,000 in excess of those of the two years just past, Nor does this cover the deficiency bills. Including the latter the excess of appropriations for 1878-'79 over those made by the Republicans for 1876-'77, will amount to more than $25,000,000. Mr. Randall has been claiming that the Democrats have made a reduction of nearly $30,000,000. The figures I have quoted when compared with Mr. Randall's statement are instructive reading, especially when we consider that the Republican estimates for 1876-'77 were quite $16,000,000 less than appropriations for the year before.

The exploits of Glover as an investigator of Republican frauds, are a touching commentary of the truth of Burns lines:

"The best laid schemes o' mice and men
Gang aft a-gley
And lea'e us nought but grief and pain
For promised joy."

He most unwittingly connected Gen Banning, the Democratic hero of the Cincinnati ballot box stuffing, with having drawn his pay, while in the army, twice for the same month. It now appears that Glover, himself is one of the same kind of Democratic patriots. The records of the war department show that while he was colonel of Missouri cavalry in 1863 he twice drew his pay for the month of May of that year. It was very appropriate to pay his expert, Professor Wilcox out of the "all and fuel fund" of the House.

CITY ITEMS.

Heaton is Fostering his powder dry

Politics are exceedingly hot hereabouts.

Foster believes in pistols instead of brains.

Hon. A. A. McKoy was in the city on yesterday.

Wilson was the only cool man at Burgaw on the 2d.

The weather has been very hot during the present week.

Capt. W. M. Black, of Moore county is a candidate for the Senate.

Doctor R. M. Norment, of Robeson county, is a candidate for the House of Representatives.

Mr. A. V. Howell was nominated yesterday at Burgaw for Sheriff of Pender county.

We are on the Brink of going to Jacksonville if the weather continues as it is at present.

REGISTER.—Every man in the State should register. You can't vote unless your name is on the registration.

Those who are not for us are against us. Those who don't support the regular Republican ticket are assisting in the downfall of Republicanism.

Bladen County Republican Convention comes off next week. The county is Republican, and it is to be hoped they will nominate a good ticket.

Let every Republican in New Hanover, Pender, Brunswick and Bladen now go to work and do their duty; if they will, the ticket will be supported.

SHOT DEAD.—W. P. Canaday offers himself as a target to be shot dead, if he cannot sell yon a house and lot cheaper than any other man in Wilmington.

AN EXCURSION was given on the 4th of July by W. P. Canaday around the city to the citizens to view his splendid lots that he is selling at such dirt low prices.

J. H. Brooks one of the best and truest men in Brunswick county, who is a candidate for the Legislature, has served one or two terms as a Representative, and his record is spotless. He should and will be elected by 200 majority.

Our Washington letter should be read every week. It will always be interesting. Our correspondent takes great pains to give us the very latest information and his letters are always very interesting.

TREMENDOUS ROW AT BURGAW.—If the fight continues at Burgaw and Foster kills Heaton, and Foster is hung, W. P. Canaday will sell those who are left to tell the tale, a house and lot cheap, and on long time.

SOUND THE ALARM.—Be certain to have your friends near when you go up to register. So if you are refused you can prove your residence and right to register by good and reliable witnesses. Don't fail to register.

Notwithstanding the very large number of excursions on the 4th, there was not a single accident in or around Wilmington, except in all cases, there are few young men who get accidently intoxicated.

When a man refuses to support and vote for Mr. Garrell he gets mad and brags about the amount of money he has got. If Mr. Garrell is a Republican, let him support the nominees of the party instead of trying to sell the party out.

Will the editor of the South Atlantic allow a gentleman of this city to answer the pretended history of Hampton's Campaign in South Carolina? We will guarantee that the articles wrote in answer to them will be in every particular chaste.

IMPORTANT.—Go and see if your name is properly on the Registration Books, and when you go up to vote call for the same name. If your Register is Joe Smith call for Joe Smith. When you go up to vote, the Democratic Register and poll holders may prevent you from voting.

The following ticket has been nominated by the Republicans of Brunswick county. They are all goos and reliable gentlemen, and should be elected by 300 majority. Every Republican and lover of an honest county government will certainly vote the straight ticket:

For Legislature—Jno. H. Brooks.
For Sheriff—Ed. W. Taylor.
For Clerk Superior Court—Samuel P. Levin.
Register of Deeds—Hansan K Rourk.
Treasurer—Daniel R. Walker.

We hope our friends in old Brunswick county will rally and re-elect Ed. W. Taylor Sheriff, the best the county has ever had. Honest Ned Taylor is what the people call him.

No family can feel that it has a perfect safe guard against the insidious attacks of disease unless it keeps ready for any emergency, a supply of Dr. Harter's Liver Pills

The alembic of the Chemist or the science of the Botanist has made no discovery of greater value to mankind than Dr. Harter's Elixir of Wild Cherry, which removes all irregularities of the bowels, brings back the roses to the cheek of the wasted sufferer, and insures robust health.

For sale by all druggest. [2t]

TAME.—Things are getting d—lish tame hereabouts. We have only had three shooting scrapes in the past week. Unless something is done the newspapers had as well stop.

Foster shot at Heaton three times at Burgaw on Tuesday, when the firing commenced, and last night Dan Howard wound up the ball by shooting at Heaton again. He is certainly not to be killed by gunpowder, never to be drowned. He is either to be hung or he is to be a Bishop. We rather believe he is left here for some good purpose, to be a Bishop and a useful man.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.—The Republicans of the counties of Brunswick and Bladen will hold their Senatorial Convention at Northwest on the 15th of July to nominate a suitable son person to run for Senator. We understand that Mr. Henry F. Walker, of Brunswick county, will probably be the nominee. Mr. Walker is a young man of extraordinary good character. He is one of the most popular young men in the county, and if he is nominated he will certainly be elected. And the District could get no better representative, or one who would be more faithful in the discharge of his duty.

That splendid ferry boat is to be admired by all lovers of beauty and magnificence. We want VanOrsdell to take a photograph of it. We will obligate to sell at least fifty.

The editor of the late defunct Democrat is, we understand, canvassing Duplin. There is some persons in this city who would like to interview him on important business.

While the "South Atlantic" is publishing political articles, there is a gentleman who would like to criticise them.

LET NO GUILTY MAN ESCAPE.—These are the dark days of Republicanism. Let those who stand firm by the Republican principles and fight for the cause of human rights to all men, regardless of color, be remembered in the future and be rewarded accordingly. But the mark of condemnation should be placed on those claiming to be Republicans, who undertake to assist the Democrats in defeating the Republican candidates during the coming election, and in the future when they ask office at the hands of those they are now trying to sell, say to them, "get behind me Satan" for we know you not.

POSITIVE RESULTS.—There are numerous remedies that cure sometimes and become trusted as useful, but none have ever proved so effectal—cured so many and such remarkable cases—as Dr. Ayer's medicines.

The Cherry Pectoral has restored great numbers of patients who were believed to be hopelessly affected with consumption.

Ague Cure breaks up chills and fever quickly and surely.

Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla eradicates scrofula and impurities of the blood, cleauses the system and restores it to vigorous health. By its timely use many troublesome disorders that cause a decline of health are expelled or cured.

Ayer's Pills and their effects are too well known everywhere to require any commendation from us here.—Scranton (Pa.) Times. [2t]

VISITING FIREMEN AND MILITARY. The Comet Fire Company of Charleston, S. C., under the command of Capt. Williams, arrived in this city on the evening of July 3d, accompanied by the Lincoln Light Infantry, Capt. Young, commanding, also of Charleston. They were met at the depot by Capt. Richardson and the Cape Fear Engine Company, who escorted them to their Engine House on Ann street.

On the 4th the visitors and a large number of colored citizens went down to Smithville on the steamer Waccamaw, where they had a very pleasant time.

On the 5th the Cape Fear Company and the Comet Company had a trial of their engines for a prize offered by Mr. P. Heinsberger (the Live Book Store man). The Comet Engine won the prize.

Colonel Mabson and the military of this city were out on the 5th and escorted the Charleston military around.

On the 6th the visitors left, having been escorted to the depot by the military of this city, and Capt. Jas. Richardson's company, "the Cape Fear."

It was a general remark by everybody that the companies were the best behaved lot of firemen and military that has ever been here since the war. They were a splendid and fine looking lot of men.

CITY BRIEFS.—The Passport has made a new era in the excursion business, and it is thought that next year the round trip to Smithville will cost only 49 cents.——Dr. Bellamy's horse ran away on Thursday, with his little son in the buggy, and threw the little fellow out but did not hurt him.——The Restless beat the hitherto victorious Rosa at the first trial at Wrightsville on the 4th, and then the Ripple beat her every time.——The Comet Star Company of Charleston was here last week with its machine and with 80 pounds of steam threw a stream 194 feet high. But yet the Cape Fear beat the same engine at Charleston last year.——Germania Lodge, Knights of Pythias installed their new officers last week, when W. H. Gerken, P. G. C., made a speech in English, while Mr. Haar, Mr. Gerdts, Mr. Prempert and Mr. Kasprowicz made speeches in German. And there was a picnic at the Wilmington Gardens.——The Waccamaw, the Gov. Worth, the Underhill and the Passport all made excursions below on the 4th—carrying more than 1,200 people.——Isaac Pickett was declared insane by Justices Hall and Wagner.——Thomas H. Sutton, Esq., of Fayetteville was in town last week.——A colored excursion of seven car loads, gotten up by ex-Senator W. H. Moore, went up to Goldsboro the other day.——The Cape Fear Artillery fired a salute of 38 guns at the foot of Market, at 5 a. m. of the 4th.——The Benefactor sailed for New York yesterday, having on board Mr. Perry M. Rice and wife of Flemington, who will spend the summer in Vermont.——It was blazing hot yesterday and everybody melted.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY,
Editor and Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,
SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1878.

REPUBLICANS,
In unity there is strength; therefore, the Republican party must be united to gain success.

REPUBLICANS,
"United we stand, divided we fall;" therefore, don't let any Democrat or pretended Republican divide your ranks.

REPUBLICANS,
The old Republican ship has been launched. She now has all her canvass set and colors flying. The Captain and a noble crew of able seamen are at their post commanding a splendid craft. Will you allow pirates to board, dismast and run her upon the rocks? No! Patriots all over the land cry out No! She must be brought into port safely, and the pirates, who ever they may be, must be defeated.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle says that the way to "overcome" the acknowledged Republican majorities in "many districts" is to adhere closely "to the usages of the Democratic party." Those "usages" are of course fraud, intimidation and bull-dozing. This is Democracy in Georgia. Are we to understand the last gloomy and portentous paragraphs in the extract from the Raleigh News, which is printed in another column, as meaning that the News advises the bull-dozing of the second judicial district? It is important that this question be answered.

MR. JOHN F. GARRELL.

This gentleman came in the party during the present campaign, and he had not cleared the threshold before he demanded the best office in the county. We advised him at least to stay in a while on probation before he demanded an office. In answer to that, he says that we are trying to drive him out of the party back to the Democrats. We concede his right to run for the nomination, but in the convention he is defeated. Notwithstanding that he comes out as an Independent candidate for sheriff, or in other words, he bolts and tries to burst up the Republican party by defeating the Republican nominee.

We say down with the enemies of Republicanism.

HON. JOHN SHERMAN VS. THE POTTER COMMITTEE.

It will be seen by the letter of Secretary Sherman, published in another column, that he is after the Potter committee with a sharp stick. We are glad the Secretary has taken aggressive measures to stop the vile slanders of the scavenger Potter Committee. They started out with the bold assertion that they would impeach and disgrace the Honorable Secretary. What a complete failure they have made. Not only a failure, but Mr. Sherman has turned the table on them, and convicted them before the country of lying, and he stands before the people, to-day, the greatest Statesman of the times.

SENATOR.

The nomination of James Wilson, Esq., was ratified at Burgaw on Tuesday last. Now the nominations are all made for the county and legislative candidates, we hope they will make their appointments and give old Hanover a thorough canvass. The regular ticket, take it all through, is a very good one and one that every Republican vote for with credit to himself. There should be no quarreling in the party—by quarreling we have lost nearly everything in the state. Republicans should support none but the regular nominees of the party. Division will be the means of electing Democrats instead of Republicans. No good Republican will bolt the nomination of his party. A vote for a bolter is a vote for the defeat of the Republican party and the success of the enemies of Republicanism.

We call upon the Republican party of New Hanover county to unite in their efforts, and give Wilson, Scott and Waddell, for the legislature, a majority of 1,500; Manning, Hewlett, Sampson and others for the county officers, majorities at least 1,500 also. We have that majority. Let us roll them up, and show Democracy what we can do when we are perfectly united.

Down with traitors and up with patriots, hoist the old flag at the mast-head boys, and declare that it shall be successful forever. Vote for principle and not rum. The party has made their nomination and no true friend of the great Republican party will oppose them.

Mr. Lincoln said it was a bad idea to "swap horses crossing a stream," and so it is a bad plan to change commanders in front of the enemy. The old flag is up and floating gently in the breeze, and now let us nail it firmly to the mast-head and swear that it shall there stay and be successful.

The Emperor and Empress of Brazil have visited John Roach's steamer, the Rio Janeiro, when Her Majesty spoke in the kindest terms of this country, as did the members of the ministry present.

THE COLORED NOMINATION IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Post has heretofore announced that Mr. Collins, a colored man, had been nominated by the Republicans for Solicitor in the second judicial district. The Raleigh News, the special organ of Gov. Vance, commenting upon this action takes occasion to utter the following choice bit of instructive bluster:

In this nomination the Republicans of the Second District, mostly colored people, manifest a gross contempt for the proprieties of public action, as well as for the white people of the district. They deliberately draw the color line, and in their selection ignore one or two men of their own race who have some capacity. They say to the public that they have no regard for law and order in the selection of officers of the court; they mean to trample on the rights and liberties of the people because they happen to be in the majority. But let them pursue their course if they can afford to re-establish the color line, the white people can stand to have them do it, and it will be seen in the end who shall most have suffered. They should, however, note one fact as they go along, that the white people of the South having, from the first, determined not to submit to negro domination, have, in every southern state, thrown off the yoke of negro rule, and the attempt to re-establish, that sort of thing now, even in a single judicial district in North Carolina will most ignominiously fail.

The time has long since gone by when anything like a fair consideration of public questions can be expected from the Bourbon press. But it is not very often that one of those sheets lays itself open to criticism as the News has done in the above extract. It is not our purpose at present to inquire into the question of Mr. Collins' fitness for the position to which he has been nominated, inasmuch as the News does not raise that question at all. The objection seems to be to the color of the person nominated. There is no complaint so far as appears that there was any unfairness in the proceedings of the convention which nominated him. His nomination was, so far as we are informed, a fair expression of the will of the majority. Why this particular majority should be arraigned for exercising its own will, more than any other majority, is not very plain to the ordinary brain.

In fact, this thing which the News with so much invective damnifies, this opportunity to "draw the color line," to "trample on the rights and liberties of the people," and to exhibit their "contempt for the proprieties of public action," was granted to these unfortunate colored people by act of a late Democratic General Assembly. If any body is primarily responsible for the outrage of "drawing the color line" it is certainly not the colored people themselves in that district, but the Democratic Legislature which created that district with an overwhelming colored majority. If we may be permitted to inquire into the causes which actuated that illustrious body to open the door to this unhappy event, this "gross contempt for the proprieties of public action" and this trampling "on the rights and liberties of the people"—we shall find that they consisted in the fact that by crowding several counties which contained heavy negro majorities together into one district they could make three other districts surely Democratic. This is a chance which no Democratic legislature in this state ever failed to embrace. Therefore it is respectfully suggested to the News to turn its bitter diatribes towards the late Democratic Assembly itself.

This is as proper an occasion as any to descant a little upon the ingenuity with which the dearly beloved Democrats of North Carolina can construct a judicial or Congressional district. Take for instance the judicial district in which is the county of New Hanover. (If any reader will take a map of of North Carolina he will more readily understand the force of our statement.) This judicial district stretches from the South Carolina line to within less than twenty miles of the Roanoke, a distance of more than 200 miles and its lines zigzag in the most extraordinary manner. By this extraordinary proceeding they think Judge McKoy can be elected next time. This Congressional district meanders from the storm-wrapt shore of Hatteras, as crooked as a snake's path, to the upper forks of the Cape Fear a distance of more than 250 miles. This saves Waddell. The second Congressional district is a master-piece. It takes in Craven then wanders clean to the Virginia line, and then turns a sharp corner around Nash and grasps Warren. But that absorbs the counties having the largest colored majorities, leaves the second district with nearly 10,000 colored majority, and so saves Jesse Yates and Jo. Davis.

It was by this sort of proceeding that this outrage came about. We submit that it does not lie in the mouths of the Democrats who made this district without the slightest regard to the rights of majorities, and with a "gross contempt for the proprieties of public action" to complain of what the colored people may think proper to do. Let them lie in the nest which they have made and do it without this unseemly grumbling. If however they desire to relieve themselves of this "yoke of negro rule" which they have imposed upon themselves in the second district, and restore the old districts so that the Republicans can have four members of Congress instead of one we will assent The last words of the extracts are so obscure that we reserve comment upon them until further information.

DEMOCRATIC "USAGES" IN GEORGIA.

On the return of Mr. A. H. Stephens to his home, he was received at Augusta by a large crowd at the station, and in replying to their welcoming speech he said that before he left the city, he would answer face to face the assaults which had been made upon him. The next morning's Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel spoke of Mr Stephens thus:—

Mr. Stephens gives strength and respectability to the independent movement. By adhering to his bold and defiant position, he will strike a deadly blow to the life of the organized Democracy in the Eighth District. If the independent movement succeeds in this district it will extend to every district in Georgia. The evil effects that will follow cannot be exaggerated. In place of a solid Democratic representation in Congress the state may be represented in part by four or five Independents. This apprehension is not groundless. In many of the districts the negroes have a majority, and the only way in which this majority can be overcome is by a strict adherence to Democratic usages.

The last sentence seems to have been uttered in unconscious simplicity and sincerity. "In many of the districts," it says, "the negroes have a majority" and the only way to prevent them from electing their candidate is a "strict adherence to Democratic usages." If Mr. Stephens should so far interfere as to prevent this Democratic mode of overcoming majorities we do not think he will lose much in reputation outside the particular circles of the Augusta Chronicle.

THE STORY OF FRAUD.

SECRETARY SHERMAN ON THE AGGRESSIVE.

A LETTER TO THE COMMITTEE.

"A LUDICROUS BURLESQUE, A TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE."

LETTER OF SECRETARY SHERMAN TO THE COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, June 29, 1878.

In forwarding the above correspondence the Secretary of the Treasury accompanies it with the following statement:—

With respectful deference to the Investigating Committee Secretary Sherman refused to give to the press his offer of testimony, made June 6, until the committee should act upon it. After long delay, without notice to him, a paper is published this morning, purporting to be the proposed report of the committee to his formal request, in which he is denied the right to prove the very gist of the whole matter—whether or not there was a free and fair election in East and West Feliciana, and the sub-committee is now in Louisiana acting upon this construction. The pretence that he cannot prove that there was not a free and fair election because he denies the writing of an imputed letter is frivolous to the last degree, whether he wrote the letter or not. The real thing that the committee wants to know is whether there was actual fraud and violence in these two parishes to justify the Returning Board in what they did. If so that is the end of the inquiry. If not, and if the action in Louisiana was unlawful and improper, then it may become material to ascertain who participated in this. The whole affair has become a ludicrous burlesque, a travesty on justice and fairness.

To Hon. C. N. Potter, Chairman, &c.—

SIR—The resolution under which your committee is acting accuses me of inducing certain election officers of the state of Louisiana to falsely and fraudulently represent and protest the election of November 9, 1876, in East Feliciana and part of West Feliciana as not "free and fair." As to the allegation that said election was "free and fair" and the "protest" to the contrary false and frauduulent. I ask that the witnesses herinafter named be subpœnaed and examined at such such times and places as you may order. I subjoin a brief statement of the matter about which I expect these witnesses to give material testimony and also refer to the document and page where their former testimony is to be found, to the end that the committee may thereby be enabled more conveniently to judge of the propriety of ordering the subpœnas asked for and also may be to some extent aided in the examination of the witnesses.

Secretary Sherman here gives the name and residence of nearly a hundred witnesses, some residing in New Orleans, East Baton Rouge, and the greater part of them in East and West Feliciana. He refers to their former testimony as elicited at the second session of the Forty-fourth Congress, giving the numbers of the pages of the documents to show there were crimes proved of whipping, threats, raids by armed democrats, killing, burning houses, shooting, intimidation, hanging, driving from home, expulsion from office, shooting sheriff, violence at the polls, property taken away, &c. The letter then continues as follows:

In order to convey to the committee a little more explicitly than the above statements do what I expect to establish by the foregoing witnesses, I add the following statement of what the records of Congress authorize me to state. The combined result of their testimony will be—

First—The prevalence in the parishes above named, as well as in those adjoining, before and at the time of the said election, and especially at the time and places of registration of voters preparatory to said election of the thoroughly organized and executed system of intimidation of Republican voters by the Democrats.

This intimidation, enforced by means of daily and nightly raids by armed bodies of men upon the persons and property of Republicans, included in these acts of violence, killing, wounding and whipping of Republicans, breaking into and burning houses and stores and other outrages, by means of which a state of terrorism was inaugurated in these and adjoining parishes, that the leading Republicans in these localities were forced to leave their homes and prevented from organizing for the campaign, and the rank and file of the party utterly disheartened, a large majority of them forced against their wish either to desist from voting or to vote the democratic ticket.

That this intimidation was carried to such an extent that the large Republican majorities which had appeared at every election after the close of the war, and prior to the election of 1876, were thereby suddenly converted into large Democratic majorities, so that in some of the precincts, and in one of the parishes—to wit, East Feliciana—not a single Republican vote was polled.

Second—I expect by this testimony to show that witnesses of both parties concede the exisience of this violence and intimidation, though the Democrats say that it was not political in its origin.

Third—I expect by this testimony to show in establishment of the claim that it was political and directed by Democrats against Republicans as such, that this organized violence was so timed as to precede and cover the time of registration and to precede elections, and that it ceased after the election, and that the victims of the violence and intimidation were almost always the active, leading Republicans, and never Democrats.

Fourth—I expect by this testimony to show, and will show, as I am authorized to state by the records of Congress, among others the following list of enormities committed in the following parishes. These for the political ends above stated, namely—East Feliciana, killed, 5; wounded, 3; hung, 2; whipped, 24; shot at, 4; expelled from office, driven from home, 8; by threats of violence, 5; burned out, 2; threats to individual persons, 11. In West Feliciana, killed, 25; wounded, 1; hung, 3; whipped, 7; shot at, 7; expelled from office, driven from home, 11; by threats of violence, 4; threats to individuals, 15; burnt out, 13. I make this application to the committee at this time because I wished to give the committee the opportunity to take action thereon before it should send part of its members to Louisiana, if that should be done. In case of the decision to send a sub-committee to Louisiana, and that the committee shall deem it improper to bring all the witnesses named in this city, then I ask that this application shall be treated and acted on by the committee and by the sub-committee sent to Louisiana as an application to have the witnesses named supœnaed and examined wherever the committee or sub-committee shall decide it best to have them appear. The names and testimony, as above indicated, I derive mainly from the records of Congress which I have pointed out. Deeming it due to the committee and myself to file this application without the delay that would be involved in an attempt to find out whether any and which of the foregoing witnesses may be dead or out of reach the process of the House, I decide now to file it and to say that as soon as notified that my application will be granted my counsel here and in Louisiana will, before the supœnaes are issued, strike from the list the names of any persons whose attendance it shall be found to be impracticable to procure.

Very respectfully,
JOHN SHERMAN,
Treasury Department, June 6, 1878.

A COLORED MEMBER ON GUARD

We clip the following complimentary article to our colored friends from the Chicago Inter Ocean:

In the olden time, when the negro was the most valuable part of the southern man's possessions, it was common for the "young master," when he took a "lark," or went off for a "spree," to trust to his colored man for the safety of everything valuable he had about him, even to his diamond pin and pocket book. The master reserved but two things to himself, his reputation and his personal safety, for neither of which he cared a snap of his finger. During the war necessity compelled a still higher trust in the negro. The master shouldered his gun, and said, "I am going to fight for the destruction of the government, and the establishment of a southern confederacy, that I may hold you in bondage more securely; stay here and support my family, and protect my property," and the negro staid. In whatever capacity they trusted him they found him patient and faithful. The old system has passed away. With it much of the kindness the southron bore the colored man has gone, and a hatred, so bitter and unrelenting as to astonish the rest of mankind, has taken its place. They still trust him, however. "When the "Confederate House" at Washington concluded it would take a glorious druuk during its last hours, it turned over to Rainey, a colored member from South Carolina, its own interests and the interests of the forty millions of people it pretended to represent, and guzzled, feasted and rioted while he watched and worked. It is the old play over again on a new stage with new scenery. The southern plantation, village, and city give place to the Capital and Legislative halls of the nation. The diamond pin of the master is superseded by the honor of the nation, and his pocket book by its Treasury, yet the white man goes on the same old drunk and turns over these valuables to the keeping of the negro, who is, as in the olden time, patient and faithful. It is a matter of regret to the people at large that some of the other important Congressional committees did not have a colored member.

Marriage of Consul Dockery.

Mr. Dockery, the well-known United States Consul at Leeds, was married on the 21st of May, at Oporto, first at the British Consulate, by Oswald Crawford, Esq., H. B. M. Consul, and afterwards at the British Chapel, by the Rev. T. S. Polehampton, and in the presence of Henry W. Diman, U. S. Consul for Lisbon. The bride was Miss Susanna Roope, daughter of Cabel Roope, Esq., of the house of Hunt, Roope & Co., one of the oldest English houses in Oporto. Mr. Dockery was consul in Oporto from 1873 to 1876.—Anglo-American Times.

THINGS IN GENERAL.

The beautiful Queen of Spain having died suddenly, Madrid is buried in mourning ceremonies, and her remains were lying in the Escurial.

There has been a final and complete adjustment of the disputes between the Austrian and Hungarian parliaments, and the Emperor has confirmed it.

One of the experts of the Glover committee having reported a deficiency in the Treasury of $19,000,000 as accuring in 1865, Treasurer Gilfillan explains that the money was deposited in the Sub-Treasuries and U. S. Depositaries, and properly accounted for by vouchers.

The Congress of Berlin seems to be getting on as well perhaps as could be epected. Austria, it was proposed, was to hold a sort of protectorate over Bosnia and Herzegovina, but Count Andrassey was not willing to admit the independence of Montenegro, and Turkey did not assent to the loss of Bosnia and Herzegovina. So things are as we write. Servia will be independent.

P. S.—Since writing the above the following items have been definitely decided:

First—Bosnia and Herzegovina to be occupied by Austria.

Second—Servia, Roumania and Bulgaria to be independent.

It seems to be certain that all the details of the treaty will be agreed upon at once and that the Congress will adjourn. Gen. Toddleben is making preparations to withdraw the Russian troops. We shall probably be able to publish the details of the treaty in our next issue.

Gov. Noyes in his testimony before the Potter committee used the following language:

Returning officers, contradicted as they were by the other two, I desired in preparing the case to know from the electors themselves how many of them had actually voted the Republican ticket; we sent down there to get evidence, and my remembrance is, that of 3g9 Republican votes counted and returned we proved about 340 or 350, and I was told that they could not get the rest because the parties had scattered in various directions, but we came so near it as to make impossible the Democratic theory that 219 votes had been added; that satisfied me, and seemed to satisfy the Canvassing Board; I wish to say that no mortal man ever told me, or intimated to me, while I was in Florida that there was anything fraudulent about the returns, except what was sworn to before the Canvassing Board, and was made public; I mean I had no private information derived from any source whatever.

Q.—Do you, in that matter, honestly and conscientiously believe that the return made and argued for by you was right?

A.—I believe it thoroughly, and can say that we made a case which would satisfy any unprejudiced court in Christendom.

As to McLin's conversation with him when Mc L. now says that he told him that if he testified he should injure the case, Mr. Noyes said in a very impressive manner, "Dennis might have intended to convey such a meaning, but so help me God, I did not so receive it."

Gov. Noyes presented two letters written by McLin to him after the decision of the electoral commission in which he says:

DEAR SIR—Lamentable changes have taken place since we parted on the 6th of December last; then we were hopeful and happy in the pleasant assurance that Gov. Hayes would be inaugurated, our next President. Now we are humiliated with the near approach of defeat. Not an honest defeat, but a defeat that will be brought about by cravenly submission and sheer cowardice. As to Florida, recent developments show that Democratic frauds and villainies were even grater than we had any idea of at the date of the canvass.

* * * *

A kind word spoken by you to the President will be of good service. Hoping that a gleam of light may break through the thick fold of surrounding darkness, and that Gov. Hayes may be inaugurated in accordance with the will of the people, I remain yours very truly.

And the following:

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., March 3, 1877.

To Hon. E. F. Noyes, Washington:

DEAR SIR—Supposing that you are in Washington rejoicing with the nation over the inauguration of Governor Hayes, I embrace the opportunity of thanking you for your kind response to my letter, and at the same time expressing to you my soul-felt gratification over the ultimate triumph of Gov. Hayes. The party may expect much in the way of purification and elevation from our noble President, and the nation will experience four years of unexampled prosperity. Let joy reign supreme at the inauguration. I very much regret that I cannot be present and drink in a flood-tide of happiness. As it is, I am happy here, surrounded by the meanest Democrats the world has ever seen.

Truly yours,
SAM'L B. MCLIN.

And yet McLin is one of the witnesses who now has testified that there were Republican frauds in Alachua county enough to defeat Hayes and elect Tilden. What confidence can be placed in the word of such a fellow?

THE WILMINGTON POST,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1878

PERSONAL

Gen. T. L. Clingman, who is a candidate for U. S. Senator, has arrived at his home in Asheville.

Gen. R. B. Vance, member from the 8th transmontane district, has arrived at Buncombe.

Gov. Brogden has returned from Washington, and is residing for the present in Goldsboro.

Judge Rodman of the Supreme Court retires during vacation to his large estate in Beaufort, and gives his attention largely to it.

Col. Waddell, having been recently married, is out on his bridal tour.

Ex-Senator Pool, one of the very ablest men produced by North Carolina, is living quietly in Washington in the practice of his profession.

Mrs. Gov. Vance has been quite ill at Charlotte, but was expected to be removed to some place in the mountains.

The Hon. J. H. Smyth, credited to North Carolina and appointed Minister Resident to the Republic of Liberia, has sailed therefor by way of Liverpool.

SMALL TRUCK FARMS.

In Great Britain eight persons own more than 220,000 acres of land each, and forty one persons own more than 100,000 acres each. The largest landholder, according to a recent report, is the Duke of Sutherland, who owns 1,250,425 acres of land in Scotland. The Duke of Bouceleugh and Queensburg owns 459,260 acres, Sir James Matheson 406,070 acres, Earl of Breadalbane 372,729 acres, Earl of Leafield 305,891 acres, Duke of Richmond 286,407 acres, Earl of Fife 257,652 acres, and Alexander Matheson 220,433 acres. According to the latest returns there are 1,173,724 owners of land in great Britain, but 252,438 of these own less than one acre each.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians, or how much medicine you have tried it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds, Coughs, &c. who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all Druggist.

The neighbors of Secretary Sherman at his Ohio home recently held a meeting to express their indignation at the recent attacks made upon him by the Democrats. After testifying to "his purity in private life, his probity in public affairs, his devotion to the country in war and in peace, his pre-eminent ability through which the finances of the country have reached certainty and solidity," the resolutions denounce all attempts to defame his character, and declare that those who know him best "resent any and all insinuations against his strict integrity and perfect rectitude in all his relations of life."—*Nat. OLD, TRIED, AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

It is intended to cure. Its ingredients are so skilfully proportioned that the full alterative power of each is assured, and while powerful enough to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to remove out from the system those poisonous matters and corruptions which make up loathsome disease.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flowers. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western continent.
